Another Foundation Update

Have You Noticed ...

The new furniture and bookshelves of the new library project in the hallways at the West Campus? This new library for the congregation also will serve as a designated teaching center for the Institute of Lutheran Theology. It is intended to help the growth and expansion of an exciting program. The library furniture was provided with funds entirely through a grant from The Foundation of the Master.

Gifts to The Foundation are not meant to replace normal giving to Lutheran Church of the Master.
